

The Palestrina Motets

in order of sight-reading complexity

PERFORMANCE EDITION

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c.1525-1594) ranks as one of the greatest masters of the Renaissance musical art. In the nobility and restraint of his sacred music, he assimilated and refined his predecessors' polyphonic techniques to produce a seamless texture and vocal balance that have made him the classic model of the Renaissance style.

This series includes Palestrina's 52 SATB motets arranged in their relative order of sight-singing complexity.

These are historically accurate editions of Palestrina's work, carefully researched and edited by Joe Hickman, D.Mus.

This series is available in two formats:

- The PALESTRINA READER
(music only — see page 27 for format example)
- The PERFORMANCE EDITION
(see sample page to the right)
